

Complete, Personalized Service, Each and Every Time! When it comes to moving an office, it takes a dedicated team to move it on time, within budget and with the care that you would expect. The Andrews Commercial Services Division is an industry leader when it comes to service quality. Our trained, uniformed crews are directed by team leaders with a dedication to excellence. When we make a commitment, we keep it. That's the Andrews Advantage.

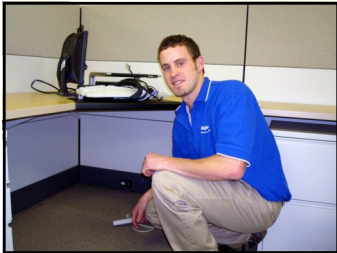

Transportation Services

- Relocation from a single work space to several thousand offices
- Dedicated Project Management Team
- All of the necessary equipment and materials
- Drug-screened, background checked, and trained personnel

Installation & Design Services

- Create office layout utilizing Auto-CAD system
- Teardown and rebuild of existing workstations
- Transportation, receiving, delivery & layout of new systems
- Ability to work with multiple product lines
- Trained Certified Professionals

Disconnect & Reconnect Services

- Professional computer technicians
- Phone and data line services
- Peripheral equipment set up

Onsite Supervision

- Supervision provided to oversee all aspects of your relocation
- Interface with all production team members as well as end user

Distribution & Warehouse Management

- Unmatched safety and security with state-of-the-art technology
- Flexible storage configurations
- Short or long term storage
- Temperature controlled environments

