

No matter what exhibits the Andrews Trade Show Team may be setting up for you, our team understands the importance of providing meticulous customer service. We ensure the exhibitor's material arrives and departs on time, in perfect condition, each and every time. Our 100% reputation and reliability defines the Andrews Advantage.

Training and Certification

- Van operators, operations and customer service staff are required to complete training program to become certified
- Unigroup certification is required to service any shipment
- Customer centric culture

Corporate Events

- Experienced on-site show representatives
- Show-site waiting time included for scheduled pick up/delivery date
- Verify move in, move out and target dates with drayage
- Can handle last minute or split shipments from show floor
- Certified weight tickets on every move
- Direct communication with van operator

Roadshow Planning and Logistics

- Assist with venue selection and site survey
- Inside pick up and delivery included
- Unpacking and set up
- Temporary storage during and between events
- Skybitz satellite tracking
- Preprinted shipping labels

Partnerships

- Build and maintain strong relationships
- Coordinate and communicate details between display house, exhibitor and I&D supervisor
- Consolidate multiple exhibitors from display house to show, with separate weight tickets
- Serve domestic and international venues

